

I value my phone privacy..say no to the banking industry. The CBA should withdraw their petition. I will ask the bank when I need money. This will cause undue stress on individuals and we need less credit cards not more... that is what the CBA wants..